

GSPRS Nondiscrimination Notice

Updated March 2018

We comply with applicable Federal civil rights laws and do not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, disability, race, color, ancestry, citizenship, religion, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, payment source or ability, or any other basis prohibited by federal, state, or local law.

We provide:

- Free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:
 - Qualified sign language interpreters; or
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).
- Free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:
 - Qualified interpreters; or
 - Information written in other languages.

If you need access to services or to report a concern regarding discrimination in access to services, please contact any GSPRS employee at (843) 497-2227.

You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, the ECC is available to help you.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office of Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at:
